

Declaration of academic integrity for term papers

I hereby declare that I have completed this work independently and without unauthorised assistance from third parties, that I have not used any aids other than those mentioned and explicitly permitted, and that I have generally conducted myself in a manner consistent with examination regulations. I also declare that when using IT/AI-supported writing tools, I have listed these tools in full in the overview of aids used, including their product name, my source of reference and the prompts used. I have marked the relevant passages in the paper as having been written with IT/AI-generated support. To this end, I have followed the same procedure as for regular references and citations [e.g.: The sky is blue (prompt 2)].

I am aware that failure to comply with these regulations will be considered deception or attempted deception and will be punished in accordance with the examination regulations applicable to me.

I have used the following aids for my work:

I used the following prompts (if necessary, include prompts as an attachment):
